DEFENDANTS' SUMMARY OF THE CASE

On or about September 28, 2010 Plaintiff Chanel Taylor alleges she observed what she defined as police brutality. As a result, Plaintiff approached the officers and the individual being arrested. Plaintiff entered into a confrontation with the officers. Additional officers were dispatched to the scene and eventually showed up. The original officer ordered the arriving officers to arrest Plaintiff. Plaintiff was arrested for interfering with a police officer. Plaintiff sustained a broken arm during her arrest. Plaintiff alleges excessive force was used against her, that she was wrongfully arrested and that there was a conspiracy among the defendants. Defendants deny the allegations of excessive force, wrongful arrest and conspiracy.
